Company hereby disclaims any representation or warranty that the product is compatible with any Products Customer may choose to connect to the Company supplied product.

5. Title, Risk of Loss or Damage

Title to the System and all of its components shall remain in the name of Company until Customer has paid for the System in full, at which time it shall become the property of the Customer. Upon completion of installation, all risk of loss shall pass from Customer, regardless of whether it has been paid in full for such installation. Company or any subcontractor engaged by Company to perform work or furnish materials who is not paid may have a claim against the Customer or owner of the premises which may be enforced under the applicable laws, which may include placing and enforcing mechanic's liens upon the real property at which the System is to be installed.

6. Default by Customer

The product(s) described in this Agreement may be custom manufactured and are of limited use and value unless installed as described in this Agreement. If this Customer defaults in the performance of any of its obligations under this Agreement or any other agreement between the parties, including failure to pay any monies when due, Company may suspend performance under any such agreement and may pursue against the Customer any remedy available at law or equity, now or in the future, including collecting interest on any unpaid balance at the highest rate allowed by law. In addition, if Company commences legal proceedings or retains the services of a collection agency or an attorney to enforce its rights under this Agreement, Customer shall pay Company's reasonable attorney and collection agency fees. In the event of legal action between parties in connection with their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement, the parties waive trial by jury and Customer waives the right to interpose any counterclaim in any action or proceeding commenced by Company.

7. Indemnification, Damages and Limitations of Liability

- A. Customer shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Company, its agents, employees and subcontractors from any expense, liability, loss, claim or damage, including personal injuries made by any person including those not a party to this Agreement, relating in any way to the System(s) or service(s) referred to in this Agreement, except to the extent proximately caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Company. - B. The value of the Customer's property or the property of others kept on the premises at which the System is installed, which may be lost, stolen, destroyed, damaged or otherwise affected by occurrences which the System may be designed to detect, alert or avert is completely unknown to and outside the control of Company, and Company is not an insurer. In addition, Company has no control over response time of any emergency service provider, and it would be extremely difficult to ascertain what portion, if any, of any loss or damage would be proximately caused by any failure on the part of Company. Charges are based solely upon the value of goods and services provided, and are unrelated to the uses made by the Buyer of its premises, including the value of the premises or any property threat, or people thereon. The amounts payable by the Customer are not sufficient to warrant Company assuming any risk of damages, including consequential damages, for any property damages, or personal injuries due to Company's negligence, gross negligence, and failure to perform for any reason whatsoever. Buyer agrees that it does not desire Company to assume any risk of damages, and agrees that Company shall not be liable for such risk. Customer further agrees that if Company should be found liable due to any failure by it to perform any obligation under this Agreement or otherwise, or the failure of the System to operate in any respect, Company's liability shall be limited to 10% of the total purchase price or $500, whichever is less, and that this liability shall be exclusive. Customer may, at its option, increase the amount of this limited liability by separate agreement with Company at increased cost proportionate to Company's increased risks, which shall not be insurance coverage.

8. Waiver or Breach

The waiver of a breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not operate as and shall not be construed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach. No failure or delay in exercising any power or right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof.

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior understandings, promises, proposals, representations, negotiations and agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties respecting subject matter hereto. No waiver, change, amendment or modification of any of the terms hereof shall be binding unless in writing and signed by both parties hereto.

10. Arbitration

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the parties to the arbitration. Any court with jurisdiction may enter judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator.

11. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without reference to the choice of law doctrine. Customer agrees to submit to personal jurisdiction in any venue where Company is, subject to any claim directly or indirectly related to the goods or services provided by the Company hereunder.
