A Colonial Restaurant & Pub
Originally Built in 1790 in Downtown New London, Connecticut

Dear Gordon,

Here's a quick note, as promised, to let you know that I am very satisfied with you, your company and the System.

After shopping around for about a year, I decided to put my trust in you, and you delivered everything I wanted.

Your System works great and your installers did a fine job.

Thank you for everything especially your quick response to my service call.

My Best Regards,
